Section 1. Emergency Transfers

The NC Balance of State Continuum of Care (NC BoS CoC) is concerned about the safety of its tenants, and such concern extends to tenants who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. In accordance with the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA),¹ all housing providers in the NC BoS CoC must allow tenants who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to request an emergency transfer from the tenant's current unit to another unit. The ability to request a transfer is available regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.² The ability of a housing provider in the NC BoS CoC to honor such requests for tenants currently receiving assistance, however, may depend upon a preliminary determination that the tenant is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and on whether the NC BoS CoC has another dwelling unit that is available and is safe to offer the tenant for temporary or more permanent occupancy.

This plan identifies tenants who are eligible for an emergency transfer, the documentation needed to request an emergency transfer, confidentiality protections, how an emergency transfer may occur, and guidance to tenants on safety and security. This plan is based on a model emergency transfer plan published by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), the Federal agency that oversees that the NC BoS CoC and all participating housing providers are in compliance with VAWA.

Internal transfer: An internal transfer is a transfer within the same single or scattered site property in which the tenant requesting the transfer resides. The transfer can be performed without the tenant reapplying for housing assistance.

External transfer: An external emergency transfer refers to a tenant's physical move out of the property in which he or she resides or out of a form of assistance, where the tenant would be categorized as a new applicant. For example, a move from Property A to Property B is an external transfer – this also means that the household goes from being a tenant at Property A to an applicant at Property B.

Safe unit: A victim determines whether the unit is safe.

Section 2. Eligibility for Emergency Transfers

A tenant who is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, as defined in HUD's regulations at 24 CFR part 5, subpart L is eligible for an emergency transfer, if the tenant reasonably believes that there is a threat of imminent harm (including physical, sexual, emotional, and/or economic harm) from further violence if the tenant remains within the same unit. The tenant does not need to provide any evidence to verify reasonable belief. If the tenant is a victim of sexual assault, the tenant is also eligible for an emergency transfer if the sexual assault occurred on the premises within the 90-calendar-day period preceding a request for an emergency transfer.

² Housing providers cannot discriminate on the basis of any protected characteristic, including race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status, disability, or age. HUD-assisted and HUD-insured housing must be made available to all otherwise eligible individuals regardless of actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity, or marital status.

A tenant requesting an emergency transfer must expressly request the transfer in accordance with the procedures described in this plan.

Tenants who are not in good standing may still request an emergency transfer if they meet the eligibility requirements in this section.

A request does not guarantee continued assistance or an external transfer to other HUD housing.

Section 3. Notice of occupancy rights under VAWA and certification form

All housing providers in the NC BoS CoC must provide all tenants with the Notice of Occupancy Rights Under VAWA (see Appendix IV) and the VAWA Certification Form (see Appendix III) to document an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

The Notice of Occupancy Rights Under VAWA must be provided to applicants by housing providers:

- 1) At the time they are denied assistance or admission to the housing program; or
- 2) At the time they are admitted into or provided assistance by the housing program.

The Notice of Occupancy Rights Under VAWA must be provided to current tenants by housing providers:

- 1) Immediately to all current tenants if they have not already received the Notice of Occupancy Rights Under VAWA; and
- 2) With any notification of eviction or termination of assistance.

Section 4. Emergency Transfer Request Documentation

Every housing provider in the NC BoS CoC must have a procedure that complies with a requirements in this plan to request an emergency transfer. Housing providers' emergency transfer procedures must be written into their policies and procedures and housing providers must inform all tenants of their ability to request an emergency transfer and the documentation that is required. A model procedure is in Appendix VI.

Housing providers do not have to require third-party documentation of incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, to approve an emergency transfer, but housing providers may require a verbal or written self-certification from the tenant. To request an emergency transfer, the tenant shall notify their housing provider's management office and submit a written request for a transfer, if required. All housing providers will provide reasonable accommodations to this policy for individuals with disabilities. The tenant's written

bos@ncceh.org

919.755.4393

www.ncceh.org/BoS

request for an emergency transfer should include either:

1. A statement expressing that the tenant reasonably believes that there is a threat of imminent harm from further violence if the tenant were to remain in the same dwelling unit assisted under the housing program; OR
2. A statement that the tenant was a sexual assault victim and that the sexual assault occurred on the premises during the 90-calendar-day period preceding the tenant's request for an emergency transfer.

If a housing provider requires written third-party documentation to approve an emergency transfer, they must allow a tenant to use any of the following forms of documentation to certify their need for an emergency transfer:

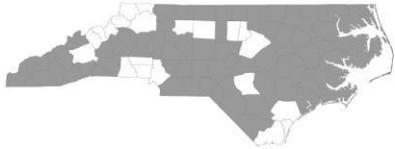

- A complete VAWA certification form from Appendix III of this document;
- A record of a Federal, State, tribal, territorial, or local law enforcement agency, court, or administrative agency that documents the incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking;
- A statement, signed by the tenant, along with the signature of an employee, agent, advocate, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, a medical professional or a mental health professional (collectively, "professional") from whom the tenant sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or the effects of abuse, and with the professional attesting under penalty of perjury that he or she believes that the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking are grounds for protection; or
- Housing providers may also choose to accept other forms of documentation, as long as they also accept the three forms of documentation above.

Housing providers cannot require tenants to submit more than one form of documentation.

If a housing provider receives documentation that contains conflicting information (including certification forms from two or more members of a household each claiming to be a victim and naming one or more of the other petitioning household members as the perpetrator), the housing provider may (a) obtain verbal verification from a domestic violence advocate or (b) require an applicant or tenant to submit third-party documentation, as described above, within 30 calendar days of the date of the request for the third-party documentation.

Section 5. Confidentiality

Any housing provider that receives a request for an emergency transfer will keep confidential any information that the tenant submits in requesting an emergency transfer and information about the emergency transfer. The housing provider may only release information about the emergency transfer if:

North Carolina Balance of State Continuum of Care

bos@ncceh.org

919.755.4393

www.ncceh.org/BoS

- The tenant signs an additional release of information for a specific timeframe;
- Disclosure of the information is required by written law; or
- Disclosure of the information is required by a court or official court documents signed by a judge for use in an eviction proceeding or required by federal, state, or local law or regulation for hearings regarding termination of assistance from the covered program.

If a tenant gives written permission to share information on a time limited basis with one or more agencies in the NC BoS CoC and/or Victim Service Providers, those agencies will also keep all information regarding the transfer strictly confidential.

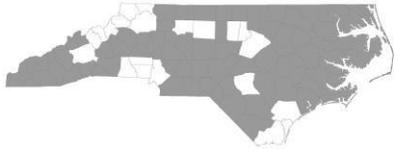

See the Notice of Occupancy Rights under the Violence Against Women Act (Appendix IV of this document) for more information about housing providers' responsibility to maintain the confidentiality of information related to incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Section 6. Emergency Transfer Timing and Availability

The NC BoS CoC cannot guarantee that a transfer request will be approved or how long it will take to process a transfer request. All housing providers will, however, act as quickly as possible to move a tenant who is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to another unit, subject to availability and safety of a unit. If a tenant reasonably believes a proposed transfer would not be safe, the tenant may request a transfer to a different unit. If a unit is available, the transferred tenant must agree to abide by the terms and conditions that govern occupancy in the unit to which the tenant has been transferred. Nothing may preclude a tenant from seeking an internal emergency transfer and an external emergency transfer concurrently if a safe unit is not immediately available. It is recommended that this policy be clearly stated in the plan. A housing provider may be unable to transfer a tenant to a particular unit if the tenant has not or cannot establish eligibility for that unit.

If the tenant's current housing provider has no safe and available units for which a tenant who needs an emergency transfer is eligible, their housing provider, the regional Coordinated Entry Lead, the Regional Lead, and NC BoS CoC staff will assist the tenant in identifying other housing providers who may have safe and available units to which the tenant could move. The original housing provider is responsible for ensuring the emergency transfer is completed quickly and safely.

Tenants who qualify for an emergency transfer but a safe unit is not immediately available for an emergency transfer with their current agency, shall have priority over all other applicants for rapid rehousing, transitional housing, permanent supportive housing, and other rental assistance projects in the CoC provided that: the individual or family meets all eligibility criteria required by Federal law or regulation or HUD NOFO; and the individual or family meets any additional criteria or preferences established in accordance with § 578.93(b)(1), (4), (6), or (7). The individual or

bos@ncceh.org

919.755.4393

www.ncceh.org/BoS

family shall not be required to meet any other eligibility criteria or preferences for the project. The individual or family shall retain their original homeless or chronically homeless status for the purposes of the transfer.

With the tenant's approval, the housing provider, regional Coordinated Entry Lead, Regional Lead, and/or NC BoS CoC staff will also assist tenants in contacting the local organizations offering assistance to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

If a tenant receives tenant-based rental assistance and is approved for an emergency transfer as outlined in this policy, they may move out of the CoC's catchment area using their current assistance, as long as the housing provider can still meet all statutory requirements, including participating in HMIS, ensuring the housing meets quality standards, and ensuring the educational needs of children are met. As outlined in HUD's mobility amendment to the CoC interim rule, regulatory requirements would be waived.

Section 7. Safety and Security of Tenants

Pending processing of the transfer and the actual transfer, if it is approved and occurs, the tenant is urged to take all reasonable precautions to be safe.

Tenants who are or have been victims of domestic violence are encouraged to contact the National Domestic Violence Hotline at 1-800-799-7233, or a local domestic violence shelter, for assistance in creating a safety plan. For persons with hearing impairments, that hotline can be accessed by calling 1-800-787-3224 (TTY). Tenants can find a listing of local shelters and other resources at <https://nccadv.org/get-help>. Or tenants can contact NCCEH at bos@ncceh.org for assistance in locating resources in NC BoS CoC.

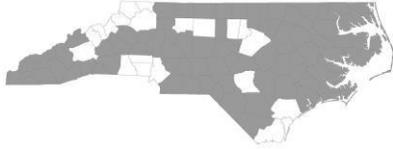

Tenants who have been victims of sexual assault may call the Rape, Abuse & Incest National Network's National Sexual Assault Hotline at 800-656-HOPE or visit the online hotline at <https://ohl.rainn.org/online/>. Or tenants may find a listing of local rape crisis centers at <http://www.nccasa.org/need-help/nc-rape-crisis-centers>

Tenants who are or have been victims of stalking seeking help may visit the National Center for Victims of Crime's Stalking Resource Center at <https://www.victimsofcrime.org/our-programs/stalking-resource-center>.

Section 8. Prohibited basis for denial or termination of assistance or eviction

An applicant for assistance or tenant assisted by a housing program in the NC BoS CoC may not be denied admission to, denied assistance under, terminated from participation in, or evicted from housing on the basis or as a direct result of the fact that the applicant or tenant is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, if the applicant or tenant otherwise qualifies for admission, assistance, participation, or occupancy.

A tenant, or an affiliated individual of the tenant, who is a victim or threatened victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking, and resides in a housing

bos@ncceh.org

919.755.4393

www.ncceh.org/BoS

program in the NC BoS CoC, may not be denied tenancy or occupancy rights solely on the basis of criminal activity directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking if that criminal activity is engaged in by a member of the household of the tenant or any guest or other person under the control of the tenant.

An incident of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking shall not be construed as

- A violation or cause for termination by a landlord and/or housing provider; or
- A serious or repeated violation of a lease executed under a covered housing program by the victim or threatened victim of such incident; or
- Good cause for terminating the assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights under a covered housing program of the victim or threatened victim of such incident.

Section 9. Lease bifurcation

In order to effect an emergency transfer, households may bifurcate a lease to remove a household member from a lease in order to evict, remove, terminate occupancy rights, or terminate assistance to such member who engages in criminal activity directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against an affiliated individual or other individual, without evicting or terminating assistance to, or otherwise penalizing a victim of such criminal activity who is also a tenant or lawful occupant.

If a housing provider exercises the option to bifurcate a lease and the individual who was evicted or for whom assistance was terminated was the eligible tenant under the covered housing program, the housing provider shall provide to any remaining tenant or tenants that were not already eligible a period of 90 calendar days from the date of bifurcation of the lease to:

- A. Establish eligibility for the same covered housing program under which the evicted or terminated tenant was the recipient of assistance at the time of bifurcation of the lease; or
- B. Establish eligibility under another covered housing program; or
- C. Find alternative housing.

The covered housing provider may extend the 90-calendar-day period up to an additional 60 calendar days, unless prohibited from doing so by statutory requirements of the program or unless the time period would extend beyond expiration of the lease.

If the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking receives tenant-based rental assistance and chooses to move to a new unit in order to effect an emergency transfer, the remaining family members may remain in the original unit as long as they had not violated the terms of the lease by engaging in criminal activity directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against an affiliated individual or other individual. Household members remaining in the unit may continue to receive assistance if they

bos@ncceh.org

919.755.4393

www.ncceh.org/BoS

were eligible for assistance prior to moving into the unit. Household members may have 90 days to establish this eligibility.

Section 10. Leases, sub-leases, and occupancy agreements

Any lease, sub-lease, or other occupancy agreement between a tenant and a housing provider in the NC BoS CoC must permit the program participant to terminate the lease, sublease, or occupancy agreement without penalty if the housing provider determines that the program participant qualifies for an emergency transfer under this emergency transfer plan.

Housing providers that operate tenant-based rental assistance must enter into a contract with the owner or landlord of the housing that requires the owner or landlord of the housing to comply with all provisions of VAWA regulations under 24 CFR part 5, subpart L and requires the owner or landlord of the housing to include a lease provision that:

- Includes the prohibited bases for eviction under Section 8 of this plan; and
- If the tenant is approved for an emergency transfer by the housing provider, allows the tenant to bifurcate the lease under Section 9 of this plan or terminate the lease under Section 10 without penalty if either action is necessary to effect the emergency transfer.
- Landlords may use HUD's VAWA Lease Addendum if their current lease does not comply with VAWA regulations. HUD's VAWA Lease Addendum is in Appendix V.

The lease may specify that the protections under 24 CFR part 5, subpart L and above, only apply while the program participant receives tenant-based rental assistance under the Continuum of Care Program.

Section 11. Record-keeping

All NC BoS CoC providers must keep confidential records of all emergency transfers requested and are required to inform the CoC of an emergency transfer request. The information should be entered into Smartsheet. The agency should inform the CoC of the outcomes of such requests and must retain these records for three years.

Appendix VI: Model housing provider emergency transfer plan

All housing providers in the NC BoS CoC must complete the following emergency transfer plan, include it in their written policies and procedures, and alert all tenants of their ability to receive an emergency transfer.

Emergency Transfers

[Insert name of housing provider] is concerned about the safety of its tenants, and such concern extends to tenants who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. In accordance with the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA),³ [insert housing provider] allows tenants who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to request an emergency transfer from the tenant's current unit to another unit. The ability to request a transfer is available regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.⁴ The ability of [housing provider] to honor such request for tenants currently receiving assistance, however, may depend upon a preliminary determination that the tenant is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and on whether the [housing provider] or its partners have another dwelling unit that is available and is safe to offer the tenant for temporary or more permanent occupancy.

³ Despite the name of this law, VAWA protection is available to all victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking, regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.

www.ncceh.org/BoS

This plan identifies tenants who are eligible for an emergency transfer, the documentation needed to request an emergency transfer, confidentiality protections, how an emergency transfer may occur, and guidance to tenants on safety and security. This plan is based on a model emergency transfer plan published by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), the Federal agency that oversees that [housing provider] is in compliance with VAWA.

Verbal explanation

[insert appropriate staff title] will explain the contents of this emergency transfer plan and any associated documents, including the HUD-approved Notice of Occupancy Rights under VAWA and the VAWA certification form, to all tenants and potential tenants:

1. At the time they are denied assistance or admission to the [housing program];
2. At the time they are admitted into or provided assistance by the [housing program];
3. Immediately to all current tenants if they have not already received the Notice of Occupancy Rights Under VAWA; and
4. With any notification of eviction or termination of assistance.

Eligibility for Emergency Transfers

A tenant who is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, as provided in HUD's regulations at 24 CFR part 5, subpart L is eligible for an emergency transfer, if the tenant reasonably believes that there is a threat of imminent harm from further violence if the tenant remains within the same unit. If the tenant is a victim of sexual assault, the tenant is also eligible to transfer if the sexual assault occurred on the premises within the 90-calendar-day period preceding a request for an emergency transfer.

A tenant requesting an emergency transfer must expressly request the transfer in accordance with the procedures described in this plan.

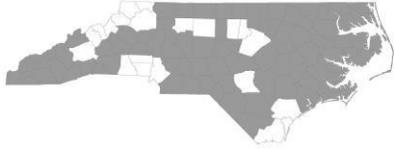

Tenants who are not in good standing may still request an emergency transfer if they meet the eligibility requirements in this section.

Notice of occupancy rights under VAWA and certification form [Housing provider] will provide all tenants with the HUD-approved Notice of Occupancy Rights Under VAWA. The Notice of Occupancy Rights Under VAWA will be provided to applicants:

1. At the time they are denied assistance or admission to the [housing program], or
2. At the time they are admitted into or provided assistance by the [housing program].

The Notice of Occupancy Rights Under VAWA will be provided to current tenants:

North Carolina Balance of State Continuum of Care

www.ncceh.org/BoS

1. Immediately to all current tenants if they have not already received the Notice of Occupancy Rights Under VAWA, and
2. With any notification of eviction or termination of assistance.

Emergency Transfer Request Documentation

To request an emergency transfer, the tenant shall notify [housing provider]’s management office at [insert address, phone number, and email for management office] or notify their case manager or other appropriate staff person and submit a written request for a transfer. [Insert appropriate staff title] will assist submitting documentation.

[Housing provider] will provide reasonable accommodations to this policy for individuals with disabilities.

If required, the tenant’s written request for an emergency transfer should include either:

1. A statement expressing that the tenant reasonably believes that there is a threat of imminent harm from further violence if the tenant were to remain in the same dwelling unit assisted under the housing program; OR
2. A statement that the tenant was a sexual assault victim and that the sexual assault occurred on the premises during the 90-calendar-day period preceding the tenant’s request for an emergency transfer.

Acceptable written forms of third-party documentation include: [this list is optional – providers may choose not to require any documentation]

- A complete HUD-approved VAWA Certification Form that was provided to the tenant;
- A record of a Federal, State, tribal, territorial, or local law enforcement agency, court, or administrative agency that documents the incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking;
- A statement, signed by the tenant, along with the signature of an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, a medical professional or a mental health professional (collectively, “professional”) from whom the tenant sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or the effects of abuse, and with the professional attesting under penalty of perjury that he or she believes that the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking are grounds for protection; or [Insert any other forms of documentation you will accept. Tenants need to only submit one form of documentation.

[Insert appropriate staff member title here] will provide all tenants and potential tenants with the HUD-approved VAWA Certification Form and [insert any other forms you create as documentation for emergency transfers].

If [housing provider] receives documentation that contains conflicting information (including certification forms from two or more members of a household each claiming to be a victim and naming one or more of the other petitioning household members as the perpetrator), [housing provider] may require an applicant or tenant to submit third-party documentation, as described above, within 30 calendar days of the date of the request for the third-party documentation.

Confidentiality

[Housing provider] will keep confidential any information that a tenant submits in requesting an emergency transfer and information about the emergency transfer. [Housing provider] only release information about the emergency transfer if:

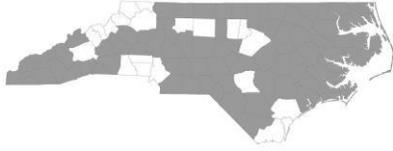

- The tenant gives written permission to release the information on a time limited basis;
- Disclosure of the information is required by law; or
- Disclosure of the information is required by a court or official court documents for use in an eviction proceeding or required by federal, state, or local law or regulation for hearings regarding termination of assistance from the covered program.

[Housing provider] will pay special attention to keeping confidential the new location of the dwelling unit of the tenant

See the Notice of Occupancy Rights under the Violence Against Women Act (Appendix IV of this document) for more information about housing providers' responsibility to maintain the confidentiality of information related to incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Emergency Transfer Timing and Availability

[Housing provider] cannot guarantee that a transfer request will be approved or how long it will take to process a transfer request. [Housing provider] will, however, act as quickly as possible to move a tenant who is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to another unit, subject to availability and safety of a unit. If a tenant reasonably believes a proposed transfer would not be safe, the tenant may request a transfer to a different unit. If a unit is available, the transferred tenant must agree to abide by the terms and conditions that govern occupancy in the unit to which the tenant has been transferred. Nothing may preclude a tenant from seeking an internal emergency transfer and an external emergency transfer concurrently if a safe unit is not immediately available. It is recommended that this policy be clearly stated in the plan. [Housing provider] may be unable to transfer a tenant to a particular unit if the tenant has not or cannot establish eligibility for that unit.

Prohibited basis for denial or termination of assistance or eviction

An applicant for assistance or tenant assisted by [housing program] will not be denied admission to, denied assistance under, terminated from participation in, or evicted from housing on the basis or as a direct result of the fact that the applicant or tenant is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, if the applicant or tenant otherwise qualifies for admission, assistance, participation, or occupancy.

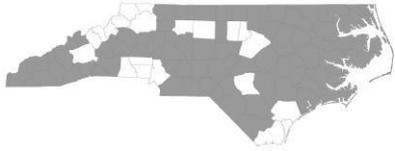

A tenant, or an affiliated individual of the tenant, in [housing program] who is a victim or threatened victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking, will not be denied tenancy or occupancy rights solely on the basis of criminal activity directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking if the criminal activity is engaged in by a member of the household of the tenant or any guest or other person under the control of the tenant.

An incident of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking shall not be construed as:

- A serious or repeated violation of a lease executed under a covered housing program by the victim or threatened victim of such incident; or
- Good cause for terminating the assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights under a covered housing program of the victim or threatened victim of such incident.

Lease bifurcation

In order to effect an emergency transfer, households may bifurcate a lease to remove a household member from a lease in order to evict, remove, terminate occupancy rights, or terminate assistance to such member who engages in criminal activity directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against an affiliated individual or other individual, without evicting terminating assistance to, or otherwise penalizing a victim of such criminal activity who is also a tenant or lawful occupant.

If a [housing provider] exercises the option to bifurcate a lease and the individual who was evicted or for whom assistance was terminated was the eligible tenant under the covered housing program, the covered housing provider shall provide to any remaining tenant or tenants that were not already eligible a period of 90 calendar days from the date of bifurcation of the lease to:

- A. Establish eligibility for the same covered housing program under which the evicted or terminated tenant was the recipient of assistance at the time of bifurcation of the lease;
or
- B. Establish eligibility under another covered housing program; or
- C. Find alternative housing.

[Housing provider] may extend the 90-calendar-day period of this section up to an additional 60 calendar days, unless prohibited from doing so by statutory requirements of the covered program or unless the time period would extend beyond expiration of the lease.

If the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking receives tenant-based rental assistance and chooses to move to a new unit in order to effect an emergency transfer, the remaining family members may remain in the original unit as long as they had not violated the terms of the lease by engaging in criminal activity directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against an affiliated individual or other individual. Household members remaining in the unit may continue to receive assistance if they were eligible for assistance prior to moving into the unit. Household members may have 90 days to establish this eligibility.

Leases, sub-leases, and occupancy agreements

Any lease, sub-lease, or other occupancy agreement between a tenant and [housing provider] will permit the program participant to terminate the lease, sublease, or occupancy agreement without penalty if the housing provider determines that the program participant qualifies for an emergency transfer under this emergency transfer plan.

Only complete if you operate tenant based rental assistance For tenants with tenant-based rental assistance, [housing provider] will enter into a contract with the tenant's owner or landlord that requires the owner or landlord to comply with all provisions of VAWA regulations under 24 CFR part 5, subpart L and requires the owner or landlord of the housing to include a lease provision that:

- Includes the prohibited bases for eviction under Section 8 of this plan; and
- If the tenant is approved for an emergency transfer by the housing provider, allows the tenant to bifurcate the lease under Section 9 of the NC BoS CoC's Emergency Transfer Plan or terminate the lease under Section 10 of the NC BoS CoC's Emergency Transfer Plan without penalty if either action is necessary to effect the emergency transfer.
